

2026 Australian Commonwealth Games Team Coin Collection - FAQs

Q: Why is Woolworths distributing these coins – doesn't it have to come through banks?

A: This coin program is a custom minting program released by the Royal Australian Mint in partnership with Woolworths to celebrate the 2026 Australian Commonwealth Games Team. The coins will be available through the cash tills at participating Woolworths Supermarkets (excluding Woolworths Metro).

Q: When can I collect the $2 Coins?

A: Each week from 15th July 2026, Woolworths Supermarkets will be releasing a new $2 coin design into the cash tills across a 3-week period. These coins can be collected as part of your normal change and by change only, strictly available while stocks last.

- Week 1 - from 15 July 2026: Commonwealth Games coin design - Gymnastics;
- Week 2 - from 22 July 2026: Commonwealth Games coin design - 3x3 Wheelchair Basketball;
- Week 3 - from 29 July 2026: Commonwealth Games coin design - Athletics

Q: Are these coins real currency or just a collector item?

A: Yes, the 2026 Australian Commonwealth Games Team coins are Australian legal tender and minted by the Royal Australian Mint. These coins are real currency and can be used for purchases everywhere Australian coins are accepted.

Q: Who is the artist of the coins?

A: These coins were designed by the Royal Australian Mint.

Q: What is featured on the obverse of the coins?

A: The 2026 Australian Commonwealth Games Team coins obverse feature the official Commonwealth effigy of King Charles III by engraver Daniel Thorne.

Q: How much do I need to spend to get a coin?

A: There is no minimum spend, however change of $2.00 or more is required to be given as change to the customer upon making a cash purchase at a participating Woolworths Supermarket.

Q: Will I definitely receive the $2 coin if I make a purchase at Woolworths?

A: All coins are subject to stock availability and are distributed by chance.

Q: Why are the 2026 Australian Commonwealth Games Team $2 coins a limited edition?

A: The Royal Australian Mint has minted only a limited number of these coins. The 2026 Australian Commonwealth Games Team $2 coins are available only while stocks last. Woolworths are unable to order more. To allow all our customers the chance to collect the coins they are handed out as change only and are distributed at random. Customers cannot ask for coins to be swapped from another cash till.

Q: Is there an album to purchase as per previous coin collections?

A: A Three-Coin Collection will be released by the Royal Australian Mint, please visit www.ramint.gov.au. Stock is limited.

Q: Can I swap notes or coins for the $2 2026 Australian Commonwealth Games Team coin I need to complete my set?

A: No, the coins are handed out as change only and by chance. You cannot swap notes for coins.

Q: Where can I find more information about the 2026 Australian Commonwealth Games Team coins?

A: Visit www.woolworths.com.au/commonwealthgamescoins

Q: I would like to lodge a complaint/feedback about the entire program. How do I do this?

A: You can email info@ramint.gov.au with your feedback or contact Woolworths via <https://www.woolworths.com.au/shop/discover/about-us/contact-us> and it will be passed onto the appropriate areas in the Royal Australian Mint or Woolworths.

Q: The product is already being sold on eBay at ridiculous prices.

A: Any secondary market listing prior to the official release date should be considered illegitimate.

Q: Is the Royal Australian Mint producing rolled coins or sachets of this product? I have seen them on eBay.

A: No, the rolled coin and sachets are not an authorised product issued by the Royal Australian Mint and we are currently investigating this issue. We cannot guarantee the legitimacy of these and recommend being cautious if buying this product.

Q: Which Woolworths Supermarkets are not participating in the coin promotion?
